COMMITTEE O. K. GIVEN TO REDDING ROAD CONTRACTOR

Special Town Meeting Saturday to Act on Georgetown Bridge Matter.

(Special to The Farmer.)

The season's second inspection of the town highway was made last Friday by the special supervising committee of five conveyed in two autos. All examined the main roads and divided to go over the cross roads. They found that in general the roads were in a smoother and better condition than ever before at this time of the year. Some of the main roads had been scraped three or four times and there had been a general clearance of stones. Upon the completion of the survey the committee made to Contractor Banks a number of suggestions for additional work, mostly in the way of carrying on material. These the contractor agreed to carry into effect at once. Having received the committee's O. K. the selectmen gave Mr. Banks an order for $1,250, the second installment paid him. In view of the colorful predictions which were made last fall regarding the working out of the contract system it is pleasant to record the fact that Mr. Banks has so far made good.

At the instance of the selectmen Town Clerk Sanford and Michael Connery appeared before the state board of equalization at Hartford on Tuesday to argue against the proposed addition by the board of $200,000 to Redding's grand list. The main point of their protest was that the assessors had made an error of judgment in reporting 85 per cent. of full value as the basis of their valuations. Speaking from a personal knowledge of actual property values on the west side of the town Mr. Connery said that many parcels were now assessed at 100 per cent. value, a conclusion he supported by citing cases of actual values derived from rented property and its relation to the present tax assessment. Another instance was the deserted Mark Twain place. This is now listed at $40,000, a moderate estimate under former conditions in the opinion of Mr. Connery, although now excessive. He doubted of the property would now sell for more than $25,000. Facts and figures were presented by Mr. Sanford to show that the situation was much the same as regards the Center and Ridge sections. The board seemed to be impressed with the claims of these arguments, but reserved decision.

A special town meeting to act on the matter of building a new bridge on the state road in Georgetown has been called for Saturday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock. If the selectmen present a recommendation it will probably be in favor of an arch bridge estimated to cost $2,000. It is explained that the comparatively short life of the present bridge was due to the corrosive effect on the iron work of the acids emitted into the stream from the Gilbert & Bennett factory. With an arch bridge in which the steel or iron would be encased in concrete this trouble would be avoided.

The war excitement has touched this town lightly. Samuel Randall, formerly of Redding Center and recently employed in the office of the New Haven Water Co., has been ordered to the front. He wanted his cousin, Samuel Osborn of the Ridge, to join him in the adventure, but the latter resisted the temptation. Lieut. Howard Bryant, who with his wife, has been stopping at the Ridgewood Inn, left on Tuesday for Augusta, Me., to join his command which will go into service. His brother, Carl, who received an appointment to the Annapolis Naval Academy from Congressman Donovan, is an ensign on the battleship Wyoming. They are sons of Mrs. Charlotte Bryant, who has a clerical position with the Sanford School.

The news that Miss Abbie Treadwell had committed suicide in a swamp in Weston by cutting her throat with a penknife was naturally a great shock to her many friends in this town. A week ago last Sunday she attended service at the Methodist church in Redding Center and those who then saw her noticed that she seemed in better health and spirits than usual. She had been a semi-invalid for many years and to relieve the pain caused by her ailment became an habitual user of morphine. It is conjectured that possibly a deprivation of the drug may have brought about the mental derangement which impelled her to take her life.

The picnic season at Putnam Park has opened with a rush. Last Friday the Union Congregational church and Sunday school of Bridgeport, 300 strong, came to the park in autos, trucks and had a very pleasant time with varied diversions including athletic sports. The Memorial Baptist church of Bridgeport, Rev. H. Douglas Pierce, pastor, and Wilbur H. Plympton, Sunday school superintendent, about 200 in number, were there Saturday. On the 17th 25 employees of the A. W. Burritt Co. of Bridgeport were visitors and last Monday the park had three picnic parties representing Bridgeport, Bethel and Danbury.

Tuesday was "clean up" day at the Episcopal church grounds on the Ridge, the affair having been arranged for by the vestry at their last monthly meeting. Five teams, three of them volunteers and ten men joined in the activities which consisted mostly of filling in with gravel the approach to the parish shelter shed. The lawn about the church was shaven and other tidying up done.

Good audiences attended the outdoor performances of the play "Valley Farm" given at the West Redding station last Thursday and Friday evenings for the benefit of Fire Co. No. 2. The entertainment was in all respects satisfactory and brought in total receipts of about $90 of which $48 was net.

Miss Irene Perry, sister of Charles O. Perry, the lower Ridge merchant, died on Tuesday of this week at the home of relatives in Silver Mine, Norway. She had been a sufferer for about three years from cancer. The first growth was removed by a surgical operation, but a few months ago five others developed and these also were excised although with little prospect of effecting a permanent cure. Miss Perry was about 40 years of age.

The market of Frank Meehan near the railroad track in West Redding was broken into on Wednesday night of last week, presumably by hoboes. They found no cash and of the stock of meat took only a leg of lamb and a modest quantity of frankfurters which probably provided a camp fire feast for the marauders.

Being short of several of their regular players the ball team of No. 1

Fire Co. went into the game against No. 2 Co. at West Redding last Saturday with some misgivings, but managed to win out by a score of 5 to 4. The third and deciding game of the series will be played at the Ridge on Saturday afternoon of this week. Charles Sanford, agent for the Maxwell, has sold a 5 passenger car of that make to George O. Sanford. The purchaser with his wife and the agent made a run to Boston and return with the car last week.

The monthly meeting of No. 1 Fire Co. will be held next Monday evening. Election of officers being the principal business.

The Ridgefield band has been engaged for Georgetown's big Fourth of July celebration. Several floats will be among the features of the parade in the morning.

Joseph Delaney of the Stratfield hotel staff, spent Sunday with his father Thomas Delaney, caretaker of Putnam Park.

Greenwich Estates Sold.
A Foster Higgins has sold his sixteen acre estate at Greenwich, to a syndicate of New York and Greenwich men for prospective development. The consideration is said to have been $100,000. The property is in one of the choice sections of the town.

Action by Judge Thomas.
Judge Edwin S. Thomas, in the United States court, has referred to John W. Banks, referee in bankruptcy for Fairfield county, for hearing, the matter of objections to the application of Oscar E. Hedman of Norwalk, for a discharge from bankruptcy.

Recovery From Lockjaw.
Just four weeks to a day from the time he was admitted to the Danbury hospital, critically ill with lockjaw, Patrick Sullivan, on Wednesday, walked from his room to a waiting automobile which conveyed him home. When he was admitted to the hospital it was expected that he would die within a few days. His jaws had set and every indication was that he had but a short time to live.

LITCHFIELD COUNTY NEWS.
Caught a Duck.
Herbert M. Smith of Great Barrington, Mass., while fishing for trout Tuesday afternoon, caught a mallard duck on his fly baited hook. The bird was released.

Called to Harwinton.
Rev. George Reese, who was recently ordained to the ministry, has been called as pastor of the Harwinton Congregational church, to succeed Rev. A. V. Woodworth, who recently became pastor of the Congregational church at West Brattleboro, Vt.

RIFLE STRENGTH AND RATION STRENGTH
One effect of Winston Churchill's criticism of the waste of men in the British army has been a lively discussion of officers' servants, of whom there are estimated to be some 200,000 in France. A number of officers have written to correct the popular assumption that these are merely ministers of comfort, spending their time at a safe distance from the front, in polishing boots and opening bottles. It is pointed out that the servants go into the trenches with the officers and are equally exposed to danger. But this is not quite the point at which Colonel Churchill was driving. While incidentally he undertook to show that about a quarter of the army suffered the greater part of the losses and risks, his main concern was to show that the rifle strength of the army was not in proportion to its ration strength. Nor was he for making the officers black their own boots, for it was part of his argument that to a considerable extent the work of the servants might be done by natives. On the whole the effect of his searching but temperately expressed criticism has been wholesome. That in some measure it is justified may be taken for granted, for the evils which he attacked are precisely those which are most difficult to avoid or to eradicate. "Rifle strength" is an index which cannot be too forcibly insisted upon.—Springfield Republican.
